I am in readiness to furnish Stove Dealers with Rathbone & Co's Albany Cook, Parlor and Box Stoves, at the manufacturer's prices, freight added.

I continue to sell the BROTHER JONATHAN COOK STOVE. I have sold them for the past three years. It has been thoroughly tested by thousands, who will testify that it is the most complete Cook Stove that can be. There is a Summer Attachment to the Stove which will make half difference less in the AMOUNT of fuel used in the summer season, and does away with all unnecessary heat which other stoves make that have not the attachment. The oven is much larger than any other stove of the same size furniture. I warrant the Stove to give complete satisfaction; if not, to be returned, and money refunded. I will refer you to hundreds of the citizens of Milwaukee who are using the Stove.

CURE FOR ALL!

HOLLOWAY'S OINTMENT

CITIZENS OF THE UNION—

You have done me the honor as with one voice, from one end of the Union to the other, to stamp the character of my Ointment with your approbation. It is scarcely two years since I made it known among you, and already it has obtained more celebrity than any other Medicine in such a short a period. THOMAS HOLLOWAY, 28, corner Ann and Nassau streets, New York.

ASTONISHING CURE OF SORE LEGS, AFTER NINE YEARS STANDING.

Copy of a Letter from Mr. W. J. Langley, of Hunteville, Yadkin Co., North Carolina, U. S., dated Nov. 1, 1853.

☞ READ HIS OWN WORDS. ☜

To Professor HOLLOWAY—

SIR: It is not my wish to become notorious, neither is this letter written for the mere sake of writing, but to say, that your Ointment cured me of one of the most dreadful cutaneous diseases that flesh is heir to, and which was considered by all who knew me, to be entirely beyond the reach of medicine. For nine years I was afflicted with one of the most painful and troublesome sore legs that ever fell to the lot of man; and after trying every medicine I had ever heard of, I resigned in despair all hope of being cured; but a friend brought me a couple of large pots of your Ointment, which caused the sores on my legs to heal, and I entirely regained my health, to my agreeable surprise and delight, and to the astonishment of my friends. (Signed) W. J. LANGLEY.

AN EXTRAORDINARY CURE OF A BAD BREAST WHEN NEARLY AT THE POINT OF DEATH

Copy of a Letter from Mr. R. Durant, dated New Orleans Nov. 9, 1853.

To Prof. HOLLOWAY, Esq., cor. Ann and Nassau Sts., N. Y.

Dear Sir: It is with heartfelt gratitude I have to inform you, that by the use of your Ointment and Pills, the life of my wife has been saved. For seven years she had a bad breast, with ten running wounds, (not of a cancer nature). I was told that nothing could save her; she was then induced to use your Ointment and Pills, when, in the short space of three months, they effected a perfect cure, to the astonishment of all who knew us. We obtained your medicines from Messrs. Wright & Co., of Chartres street, New Orleans. I send this from "Hotel des Princes," Paris, although I had written it at New Orleans, before we finally left, at that time not knowing your address at New York. (Signed) R. DURANT.

The Pills should be used conjointly with the Ointment in most of the following cases:

Bad Legs,	Fistulas,	Scalds,
Bad Breasts,	Gout,	Sore Nipples,
Burns,	Glandular Swellings,	Sore Throat,
Bunions,		Skin diseases
Chilblains,	Lumbago,	Scurvy,
Chapped hands,	Piles,	Sore heads,
Contracted and Stiff Joints,	Rheumatism,	Ulcers,
	Salt Rheum,	Wounds,

⁂ Sold at the establishment of Prof. HOLLOWAY, at No. 80 Maiden Lane, New York City; also by all respectable Druggists and Dealers in Medicines throu'out the United States, in Pots, at 37½ cents, 87 cents and $1 50 cents each. To be had wholesale of the principal Drug Houses in the Union.

There is a considerable saving by taking the larger sizes.

N. B.—Directions for the guidance of patients in every disorder are affixed to each Pot.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.

STATE OF WISCONSIN, } ss.
Milwaukee County }

The United States vs. Sherman M. Booth, Indicted for Aiding in the Rescue of Joshua Glover, and for Resisting U. S. Officers.

District Attorney SHARPSTEIN and E. G. RYAN, Attorneys for the U. S. Government;—JAS. H. & BYRON PAINE, Att'ys for Def't.

SECOND DAY.

AFTERNOON—(Continued.)

The Jury being sworn District Attorney Sharpstein read the indictment, and stated the case as he expected to prove it to the Jury.

Mr. Paine then stated that the indictment contained counts under two distinct acts, and he wished the Court to require the prosecution to elect upon which count they would elect to proceed.

Court overruled the motion, deciding that they constituted but one offence, and not separate offences.

The Court stated his wish that no report of the testimony should be published during the trial—that such reports often did great injustice to Jurors and the Court. Reports of trials of crim. con. cases, and cases where women were concerned were often published in Philadelphia, New York and other cities, which were disgraceful and demoralizing, and were not to be read in familes. No reporter should be admitted inside the bar to report. He could control that, at least. [We submit that our case does not belong to this class, and there has no good reason yet been offered, why the public outside the Court Room have not as good a right to know the proceedings of a public Court, as those inside the Court Room. And we regard this decision as a blow at the Freedom of the Press.—Ed. Free Dem.]

B. K. MILLER sworn: Had the complaint and warrant in the case of Garland against Glover: complaint and warrant offered to show jurisdiction of the Court, and read.

CHAS. C. COTTON sworn: Know Garland; testified to the warrant shown here as the one he served on Glover; he arrested Glover on the 11th of March, and placed him in jail here on the 11th, in the morning, from 7 to 8 o'clock; (the return he made was read); he saw Glover two hours afterward, but never had him in custody, or saw him afterward.

Cross-examined. Arrested Glover just after dark: Garland, Deputy Marshal Kearney, a Mr. Houghton, of Racine, and a man from St. Louis was with him.

Gen. Paine asked if the door was broken open. Objected to, the Court ruled that the manner of the arrest could not be gone into.

Byron Paine said that our reason for asking the question was to show that the excitement of the meeting at the Court House Square, to which Mr. Sharpstein referred in his opening, was caused in part by the brutal and illegal manner of the arrest.

The Court said we had nothing to do with that matter; that that was a question between Cotton and Glover.

Cross-examination of Mr. Cotton resumed:

He made the return as soon as he was put in jail, and kept the warrant in his own pocket; he delivered Glover to Mr. Parsons, Mr. Conover being absent; on reflection, thinks he left the warrant with the jailor; got a copy made somewhere afterward; didn't see Mr. Booth at the jail; had the warrant on Saturday; don't think he went to the jail for the original warrant on Monday; knows it was his duty to have the warrant to make the return; not sure that Mr. Cogswell copied the warrant, but thinks he did; met Mr. Booth just after he left the jail, before [illegible] reached the office near Martin's Block; he asked if I had been to Racine and kidnapped a man named Joshua Glover, and then held up a telegraph from Racine, stating a man named Joshua Glover had been kidnapped there by a Deputy Marshal Cotton, from Milwaukee, he 'eyed him from head to foot and said he could not well be both in Milwaukee and Racine at the same time; Mr. Booth did not personally resist him at the jail, nor in the streets, nor anywhere else, nor did he prevent his executing the writ that day directly; he requested the jailor not to noise it abroad that Glover was there.

Direct examination resumed. He sent Mr. Cogswell, Mr. Buck and Mr. Grant to the jail during the day, to take charge of Glover.

S. S. CONOVER sworn: Was Under-Sheriff and Jailor March 11th; Glover was left at the jail in his absence; first saw him at 7 A. M. and last saw him at 6 P. M.; the door was forced open by timbers, the brick-wall broke in and Glover was taken; was inside the jail at the time; a crowd was there at 10 o'clock A.M. and continued more or less till the Rescue; Glover was taken out and put into a wagon, in the middle of the street; didn't see him put in the wagon; was driven south; saw hats fly and signs of joy when Glover was driven off; staid but a minute and went back to take care of the jail; from 3,000 to 5,000 present; described the situation of jail and Court House Square; was taking tea when the crowd rushed; Mr. Buck and Grant were with him; Parsons was outside to fasten back-door; saw Mr. Booth but once reading resolutions to the meeting; didn't see Glover after he was driven off; had a scuffle, some men took hold of him and pulled Glover away from him; Glover was going up stairs and I caught him, and they pulled him away from me.

Cross-Examined: He had the key to the jail; Parsons and Schnickel each had a key and no one else; Mr. Cogswell came there about noon and staid about 15 minutes; Mr. Buck came about 2 P. M. and staid till the jail was broken open; neither Messrs. Cogswell, Buck nor Grant had a key to the jail; told Buck and Grant to take care of the Negro; Buck and Grant were with him at tea when the rescue was attempted, and Glover was on the lower floor; H. L. Page was then Sheriff; saw Gen. Paine there in the morning, and Mr. Cotton came while he was there; he took the original warrant out of his desk and gave it to Byron Paine to copy; Mr. Cotton left the original warrant till Monday; then he came for it to make a return; told Cotton he wanted it, or a copy; Cotton gave him a copy, he thinks; saw Mr. Booth only at 2 o'clock, reading resolutions; could not repeat them, but sho'd know them if he saw them; a copy was shown him from the Free Democrat, and he said he thought those were the resolutions; the crowd was not moving, except they hurrahed sometimes and disturbed the Court inside the Court House; the meeting moved from the Court House steps; did not hear Mr. Booth speak, and heard nothing concerning the object of the meeting, save what was in the resolutions.

WM. G. PARSONS sworn: Was Ass't jailor March 11th; Negro-man Glover was left there at 7 A. M.; thinks Mr. Cogswell came about 10 o'clock A. M.; Glover was taken away after 5 o'clock; testifies the same as Conover as to Glover's being taken away in a wagon; jail yard fence was broken in. He told them there was no access to the jail that way; that the family lived there, and then they went back; thinks there was a fire alarm rung about noon, and a crowd assembled; about 4 P. M. most of the crowd had gone away; about an hour after the crowd assembled again and continued till the jail was broken; saw Mr. Booth there on foot about 2 P. M.; didn't know that there was an organized meeting; did not see Mr. Booth after that.

Cross-Examined.—Remembered Gen. Paine got a copy of the original warrant about 10 A. M.; was no return on the warrant then; was at the meeting about 2 P. M.; saw nothing disorderly nor tending to violence; saw Mr. Booth either on the roof of one of the offices or the Court House steps; don't know which; saw Glover just as he was being lifted int the wagon; don't know whether he went voluntarily or not.

JAMES S. BUCK, sworn: Went to the jail about 2 P. M.; sent by Cotton; jail broken open about 5 o'clock; could not say the crowd continued there after he went into the jail, as he did not go out till the jail was broken open; can't tell where the crowd which broke open the jail came from; did not see Mr. Booth that day; last saw Glover going out of the door.

Cross-Examined.—Was not an officer; was taking tea just as the crowd rushed for the jail; could only see Glover's head as he was carried out; he made no resistance.

Direct Resumed.—Saw him on horseback on Water street about 10 or 11 o'clock, but didn't hear him say anything.

GEORGE COGSWELL, sworn: Went to the jail about 9 A. M. and staid about an hour—saw the warrant; identified it when shown him; saw the return written on it; and the return made that day in the Marshal's office; he made a copy of it; don't know whether Cotton took the warrant or whether he went for it; saw the wagon that it was said Glover was in, and a crowd on the corner of Jackson and Oneida sts.; saw a crowd on Court House Square that day; did not see Mr. Booth.

Cross-examined. Was not in the jail with Cotton; no return made on it when he copied it, in the jail; Mr. Parsons gave him the warrant to copy; don't know that he took the original warrant to Cotton; copied the warrant on the desk; don't know who was present; finished copying between 9 or 10 o'clock; thinks he left the copy in the jail; was attracted to the return because Cotton expected an examination, and wanted him to help him; did not look particularly at the return; don't know as he read the warrant.

The Prosecution offered the return of the warrant at 2 P. M., March 11th, endorsed by Judge Miller.

JOSEPH A. ARNOLD, sworn: Saw Mr. Booth, March 11th, just as he came out of the United States Hotel from dinner, riding slowly as it was muddy, and saying "Freemen to the Rescue," and something else about the jail; could not tell what; heard nothing about kidnappers; saw one above him on the sidewalk, who asked Mr. Booth a question, and he answered, but I did not hear what was said; heard him say the same as he rode up the back street.

Crossexamined. Could not connect the word "jail" with anything else; saw Mr. Hurd above him, and he asked Mr. Booth something, but did not hear either question or reply.

Direct examination resumed: Saw Glover, in a wagon, pass his office, corner of Huron, with a crowd; Mr. Brigham and Mr. Mosier were in the wagon; asked Mr. Brigham if that was the negro, and he said, "Yes; come and take him if you want him."

A. BADE, sworn: Know when Glover was rescued; was Clerk of Board Supervisors then; saw Mr. Booth in Clerk of Court's office;—he wrote some resolutions there; knew the Vigilance Committee was appointed; met at his office; Mr. Booth did not meet with them; saw Mr. Booth several times that day; saw Mr. Booth speaking, but did not hear what he said; Part of the crowd in the square was the crowd that broke the jail. There was a noise when the crowd rushed for the jail; saw Glover in the wagon; it was full; knew none in the wagon.

Cross-Examined: Dont know who broke the jail doors; could not identify one in the Court House square, with the crowd who broke the jail; was at my office when the meeting was organized on the Court House steps; Vigilance Committee was appointed, and met at his office by his consent; Mr. Booth was not present with the Vigilance Committee.

Adj'd to 9 o'clock to-morrow morning, after a lecture to the Jury on their duties, and his own integrity and purity as a Judge.

THIRD DAY.

FORENOON.

SIDNEY L. ROOD, sworn: Saw Mr. Booth on horseback, March 11th, near this building, in the street, about 9 o'clock; very much excited, turning about from one side to the other of the street, crying, "Freemen to the Rescue at the Court House."

Cross-examined: Repeated it three or four times; spoke very loud; first heard him opposite Bradley & Metcalf's, about 10 rods below him; said a good many things which he could not understand.

ALLISON LEWIS, sworn: Saw Mr. Booth on horseback March 11th; also early in the morning at Paine's office; saw hand-bills in a boy's hand; thinks Mr. Booth was talking in Paine's office; talking about a negro that was kidnapped; heard him on horseback opposite Warner's store, near the corner of East Water sts.; crying, "All peaceable citizens opposed to kidnapping come to the Court House square."

Cross-Examined: Didn't see Mr. Booth in Gen. Paine's office, but at the foot of the stairs on the sidewalk, talking with Messrs. Paine & Watkins; subject of conversation was about getting out a writ of Habeas Corpus, to see if Glover was legally imprisoned.

FRANK HEYER, sworn: Know Mr. Booth; saw him that day on the corner of Wisconsin and E. Water Sts.; heard him say, all peaceable citizens assemble at the Court House square at 2 o'clock; spoke rather loud; was riding on a gallop; saw him again near the Episcopal Church, on Jefferson-st., riding after the wagon, at 4 o'clock; saw three or four in the wagon; did not recognize Glover or any one, white or black; Mr. Booth was within six or eight rods of the wagon; wagon turned down Wisconsin st.; rode rapidly and were noisy, and so was the whole crowd. Know nothing about breaking the jail; was not at the Court House that day.

Cross-Examined: Great crowd; a continued stream, some 3,000 or 4,000 in the crowd that passed; Mr. Booth was in the middle of the crowd, not more than six or eight rods behind the wagon.

MATTHEW H. BRIDGE, sworn: Was here on the day of the rescue; know Mr. Booth; saw him that day on horseback near the Bank; did not hear what he said.

NORMAN J. EMMONS, sworn: Saw Mr. Booth on the day of the Glover rescue in the streets on horseback saying "Turn out—turn out, to the Court House—your liberties are in danger—Freemen to the Rescue."

[When asked to repeat it he said it was,—"Freemen to the rescue—your liberties are in danger—turn out, turn out."]

This was about 12 o'clock; might not be able to tell just what he said; caught enough to get the substance of it; he was exhorting the people to go to the Court House square; saw him shortly after crossing Wisconsin on Main st.;—could not hear what he said; saw him on the Court House steps reading some paper, about 2 P. M.; was reading about the arrest of the slave Glover; was taking part in the proceedings of the meeting; the proceedings were chiefly speech-making; did not hear Mr. Booth speak; Gen. Paine, Byron Paine and Mr. Watkins spoke — about Slavery, Fugitive Slave Law, Habeas Corpus, and a good deal about the Federal officers.

Court interposed and said there was no need of calling out all the history—Mr. Booth was responsible for all the meeting did.

Examination resumed. He read from a printed slip an account of the arrest of Glover; don't know as he heard Mr. Booth speak; saw Mr. Booth near the Episcopal Church, corner Jefferson street, two or three rods, perhaps more, behind the wagon with Glover, and the distance increased as they went on; the horse apparently could not keep up.

Cross-examined. He stood on Ludington's corner and first saw Mr. Booth by the Walker House; rode on a gallop; when I heard the words before mentioned, he was about entering Wisconsin street; don't know as he heard the words again; great many in the street; was galloping as he passed, and went down street; he kept in the center of the street; don't know that he stopped to converse with any one; saw Mr. Booth on Court House square at 2 P. M.; heard yourself, and Mr. Bielfield speak; didn't hear Mr. Watkins speak at all; didn't go round as a spy to report what he heard; sometime after I said that the only way to treat such a mob was to open a six or nine pounder loaded with grape shot upon them, and that I should be glad to see it done; these are my honest sentiments; was greatly excited, and spoke against the proceedings to different persons; recognized the Resolutions showed him, which was adopted by the meeting; Mr. Byron Paine said the object of the meeting was to secure the legal rights of Glover, and that a writ of habeas corpus had been prayed out, and stated what had been done; made a very temperate speech; he said the plan of the meeting was simply to test the validity of Glover's arrest by the writ of Habeas Corpus.

Direct resumed: Gen Paine said "if we could get our rights by the writ of Habeas Corpus, we must protect ourselves by our strong arms."

Crossexamined: Gen. Paine said "if the efficacy of the writ was denied, we must perform it with our strong arms."

Gen. Paine asked if this was not the language he used, that if the efficacy of the writ of Habeas Corpus could not be used to protect our rights, when all else failed, we must trust to the warm hearts and strong arms of the people to protect them.

GEORGE S. MALLORY sworn: Was here on the day of the Glover rescue; saw Mr. Booth first near Court House Square, about noon; was riding up Jackson-st, near the Court House, and saying nothing; next saw him in front of Court House reading something; didn't know what; this was not far from noon; heard him speaking of some Resolutions and writ of habeas corpus and quite a number of remarks, but did not pay particular attention; a number of gentlemen were speaking, Byron Paine and others could not tell what Byron Paine said; though it was about the same subject as Mr. Booth's was there most of the time; there was an adjournment, and most of the crowd dispersed saw him after that frequently; saw him just before the jail was broken, on horseback, speaking about habeas corpus and answering questions put him from the crowd; Mr. Hutchins asked whether the habeas corpus meant to take the body immediately or two or three days after; think Mr. Booth said immediately but was not positive; he was not much excited; heard Mr. Watkins; he said he was one of a Committee to wait on Judge Miller and ask if he would obey the writ and he said he would not, and it was now for the people to say what they would do.

Mr. Booth said, looking up, "O, there will be a moon to-night;" this was just before the rush, and there was a cry, Get him out; saw Glover put into a wagon and carried off; saw Mr. Booth there some time after; the crowd might not all have left. Don't know whether the wagon was out of sight or not when Mr. Booth left.

Cross-Examined: Didn't hear some in the crowd suggest to Mr. Booth that Garland's friends would take him out in the dark without a trial, and don't know that to this Mr. Booth said there would be a moon. Heard some in the crowd say something about Glover being taken off in the dark. Saw Mr. Booth unhitch his horse and get on him after most of the crowd had left; had no business there, but was there most of the time; the meeting adjourned in the afternoon, and part of the crowd left; there were some 500 or 800 present; Mr. Watkins was chairman of the committee to wait on Judge Miller; Gen. Wolcott was chairman of the meeting; was not there to report against his fellow-citizens; had not consulted with the Dist Att'y; don't know how or to whom he revealed what he knew. Mr. Booth said, a few minutes before the jail was broken open, that he advised the crowd not to commit any violence, but if he was the crowd he knew what he should do. He also gave notice that the Vigilance Committee would repair to the American House, and he invited the Racine delegation to meet with them for consultation. The object of the proposed meeting at the American House he understood to be to see what measures could be taken to get the writ of Habeas Corpus obeyed.

JOHN SAVAGE, sworn: Was in this city at the Glover Rescue; know Mr. Booth and saw him several times that day; was at the jail twice; saw the defendant there; when first there the meeting moved to the roof of the Clerks' offices, and Mr. Booth was reading resolutions from the roof. Next was there when Mr. Watkins spoke from a post about writ of Habeas Corpus; Mr. Booth then rode up; Mr. Watkins said he was chairman of the Committee, and made a report, and said it was now for the meeting to say what they would do. Mr. Booth spoke on horseback after Watkins—how he execrated and despised and loathed and spit upon the Fugitive Slave Law, and how he despised those that did not; that, however, they must keep the law; that was the last I saw of him there, and dont know what took place after that, as I went away; heard him also say that he would not advise them to commit violence, but if they all felt as he did, he knew what they would do; can't state the manner in which Mr. Booth spoke; spoke in an ironical voice, he thought.

Cross-Examined: Mr. Watkins stood on a post by the fence gate when he spoke; said he was on a committee to see if Judge Miller wo'd have the writ of Habeas Corpus obeyed, and reported that he refused to allow his Marshals to obey it, or something to that effect; might be somewhat mistaken in some things he stated, but didn't think he was; was very much prejudiced against Mr. Booth in this rescue case.—Had been in the office with Mr. Sharpstein, and heard him talk a good deal about the case.

URIAH B. SMITH sworn: Was here on the day of the Glover Rescue; went to the Court House twice or else staid till the jail was broke; was in Frank Raymond's wagon when the jail was broken; the team was black pony horses; saw him on horseback, some few rods south of the jail; was speaking; couldn't repeat any whole sentence he said; remembered distinctly one remark, that he told the crowd not to violate the law; saw the jail broken open with timbers or plank; as Glover came out of the door, I saw his head over the heads of the crowd, and he jumped out of the wagon, and we heard some one say "put him in the wagon." but didn't see him after that; did not see Glover put into the wagon.

GEORGE ROBERTS, sworn: Reside in Racine; recollect when Joshua Glover was arrested; was at Racine then; was about the 10th of March; came to Milwaukee the next day, on a boat; got here about 4 or 5 P. M.; 60 or 70 from Racine came with him; didn't learn from them what they were coming for; they went up to the Court House after landing; he went up too; saw Mr. Booth on a horse between jail and the lower corner of the square; was reading resolutions, but was too far to hear what he said; saw him tell Joseph Heath to take his (Booth's) horse, and go to Oakley's Stable, he thought, and get a team to take Glover away; Heath got on to his horse and went away; he told Heath to go quick as he could, as Glover would soon be out; the jail was not broken then.

Cross-examined: First saw him half way down the block; was reading resolutions or something, but did not hear anything he said; was on the side walk four or five rods; don't recollect that there was any shouting or noise at the time; don't know as Mr. Booth spoke in a loud or excited manner; witness then moved toward the jail; don't know who was with him; think Mr. Heath was with him; Mr. Booth gave him his horse within a few minutes after he first came; Mr. Heath stood near Mr. Booth on the sidewalk, when he gave Heath his horse; Quite a large crowd around Mr. Booth; shouldn't think there were so many as 300 or 400 immediately about Mr. Booth; was considerable noise, as there were so many; had stated Mr. Booth's words as near as he could recollect when he gave him the horse; didn't know at what pier he landed; came up with the Racine delegation, and walked up with them to the Court House.

Gen. Paine—What did you go to the Court House for?

The Court said he was not obliged to criminate himself.

Gen. Paine said that was a proper instruction and the witness must answer the question or claim his privilege.

After considerable reluctance he answered that he heard Glover was to be tried and he came to see; was engaged that day at Racine on the Railroad; went to the pier at Racine; a great many there; went on the boat with the crowd; was a meeting at Racine on the Glover case; was in the meeting about five minutes; went back Sunday; Racine people, many of them, went back on the boat; did not know as they went on the boat with him; didn't know what I did here Sunday; went into a saloon; eat some oysters; came here to see Mr. Hawkins; he was not here and I did not see him; was a brother-in-law of Doct. Carey.

JOSEPH HEATH, sworn: Was in the city the day of the rescue; know Mr. Booth; saw him on a horse; he met us on E. Water street and spoke with Messrs. Waterman and Clement; had a conversation with him; he offered his horse and asked him to go to Oakley's and to get a team and bring them up; he supposed to take Glover tho' he didn't say so; I went, but could not get a team, as none were in, and I came back and told him so, and he took the horse; the jail was broken open after that; but he didn't see it.

Cross-Ex.—Mr. Booth didn't tell him what he wanted the horse for; but said the nigger would be out as soon as he could get back; he resided in the city in 1845; did not know Mr. Booth, never spoke to him before; Mr. Waterman, he thinks, introduced him and Mr. Pillsbury to Mr. Booth; there were cries of "take him out—take him out," before he took the horse; Mr. Sharpstein told him in the Grand Jury "if he came out openly and told all he knew, he would not be indicted;" Deputy Marshal Kearney, the Tuesday evening before, when he subpoenaed him, told him the same thing, that "if he came out and told all he knew, he would not be indicted;" that they had strong testimony against him, and that Roberts was the worst witness against him there was; didn't recollect telling Mr. Booth, since he came here, that some one called for Mr. Booth's horse before he offered it to him; thinks some one in the crowd asked Mr. Booth for his horse before he offered him.

Court adjourned to 2 P. M.

Still Distressed.

The News is still in trouble and refuses to be comforted, because Judge Miller is held amenable to the laws, like other men. Its pretended information, "that the Sheriff was ordered to arrest the Judge, on the adjournment of of his Court, and force him to jail if he should not find bail," is a hoax. We never gave any directions, except to hold him to bail. Judge Miller is no better than the common run of men, and a great many people are uncharitable enough to think that he is not quite as good.—We can assure the News, that if the Judge is grieved because he is not above the reach of the State Courts, his griefs will be likely to be multiplied about as fast as the Glover prosecutions are multiplied. It appears from the News that the Judge is afraid of being locked up in the County Jail, to the delay of the administration of Justice. We didn't suppose it would be so difficult for the Judge to procure bail as the News' article would imply. As for Mr. Sharpstein, no one would miss him if he were locked up. It would only be the abatement of a public nuisance.

LEGISLATURE.

The Republican members of the Assembly held a caucus on Wednesday morning, and nominated the following officers, which were elected on the afternoon of the same day:

Speaker—Hon. C. C. SHOLES, of Kenosha.

Sergeant-at-Arms — Gen. BLAKE, of Fox Lake.

Mr. Earnest, of Lafayette Co.—who, the Madison Democrat claimed, had gone over to Hunkerism—and Mr. Thompson, independent member from Dane Co., acted with the Republicans.

The Republicans of the Senate nominated W. A. Lawrence, of Janesville, for Chief Clerk, and Harrison Reed, of Menasha, for Sergeant-at-Arms.

The Democrats of the Senate nominated Hon Sam'l Bugh for Clerk, and W. H. Gleason for Sergeant-at-Arms, who were doubtless elected this forenoon, as the Democrats have one majority in this body.

THE Wisconsin says we are expected to abuse everybody who does not agree in all our peculiar notions.

We could not abuse the Wisconsin worse, than to republish from day to day its silly editorials. The Wisconsin has never been known to stand up for the Freedom of the Press, unless it was sued for libel—as in the case of Mitchell vs. Cramer, when it opened a dollar subscription in its columns, and invited brokers, business men and farmers to send in their dollar contributions to sustain a free Press, alias the Wisconsin. If our memory serves us right, it got two subscribers to its dollar fund!

MADISON CORRESPONDENCE.

ASSEMBLY.

MADISON, JAN. 10, 1855.

The Assembly was called to order at 12 o'clock by T. McHugh, Clerk of the last Assembly. All the members answered to their names except Messrs. Martin of Brown, Stevens of La Crosse, Taylor of Dane and Goodall of Milwaukee.

J. H. Earnest was appointed temporary speaker, and E. Starr sergeant-at-arms. Judge Crawford then administered the oath of office to the members.

A motion to adjourn until ten o'clock to-morrow was made, and an amendment to the same, making the time ½ past 2 this afternoon was carried, on a call for the yeas and nays, by forty-three in affirmative to 32 in neg.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

On motion of McIndoe a call of the house was made and eighty members answered to their names.

Mr. Gary moved to proceed to the election of Speaker. Mr. Hull moved to adjourn till ten o'clock A. M., and called for the yeas and nays. The Assembly refused to adjourn—45 nays, 35 yeas.

Mr. Hull moved to postpone the election of officers until 9 o'clock this evening, and the motion was lost.

Mr. Vilas, of Dane, was in favor of all possible despatch, but wished that every one should have a chance to vote, and he voted for the adjournment until to-morrow, on that ground.—He counselled no factious opposition, but he would like to inquire of those who know, whether the absent members were on their way and whether some Providential circumstance may not have detained them.

Mr. Gary, of Winnebago, acknowledged the right of every member to have a voice in the proceedings of the House, but he denied the right of any member to delay the whole House by his tardiness. Former legislatures should be no precedent to this if they were wrong.

Mr. Ebbers, of Fond du Lac, was in favor of delay, because he believed it would expedite the business of the Assembly.

Mr. Bennett, of Manitowoc, moved the previous question, and on leave withdrew his motion.

Mr. Rogan, of Jefferson, moved to adjourn till 9 o'clock A. M., to-morrow, and the motion was lost.

Mr. Hull, of Grant, moved as an amendment that the word "not" be inserted in the motion to the election of Speaker, and called on the yeas and nays. The motion was lost.

Mr. White moved to adjourn—called for the yeas and nays and the motion was lost.

Mr. Hull moved to indefinitely postpone the question of election, and the motion was lost.

The motion to proceed to the election of speaker was now carried—44 yeas—36 nays.

The Assembly then voted as follows:

C. C. Sholes,........................	46
W. Hull,.............................	29
J. B. Cross,.........................	9
McIndoe,.............................	2
Gary,................................	1
Randall,.............................	1

On motion of Mr. McIndoe, the Chair appointed Messrs. Van Nostrand and McIndoe a committee to conduct the speaker-elect to the chair,

The speaker, on taking the chair, thanked the assembly for their vote, and promised that if earnest endeavors would secure success, he should feel that he might attain it, though he felt deficient in his abilities. The responsibility, fortunately, was not confined to him alone, but rested with the members also, who have the power very much to assist or retard business. If they observe the rules and cultivate courtesy, candor and forbearance business can be despatched. He should attempt to be impartial and expected every member wo'd make an effort to forward business.

On motion of Mr. Colley the Assembly proceeded to vote for Chief Clerk as follows:

David Atwood,........................	46
J. B. Sweat,.........................	16
T. McHugh,...........................	17
Colton,..............................	1

The Assembly then proceeded to vote for Sergeant-at-Arms as follows:

Wm. Blake,...........................	46
D. Starr,............................	24
F. T. Seiller,.......................	9

On motion of Mr. Earnest, the rules of the last House were adopted for this week, and a committee of five appointed to draft new rules.

The Assembly adjourned to 10 A. M. to-morrow.

Senate.

JANUARY 12, 12 M.—Called to order by the President.

The new members were sworn by Justice Crawford.

Adjourned till to-morrow at 10 o'clock.

Incidents of the [illegible] Yesterday.

Daniel Gilbert, of N[illegible]Berlin, one of the Jurors challenged off by the prosecution, when asked if he had any conscientious scruples against convicting under the Fugitive Slave Act, said he wished to express his mind freely. He said he was somewhat staggered, because the law punished with death those who made a man a slave, and with fine and imprisonment those who liberated a slave.

This simple statement made a profound sensation in the Court.

OATH OF OFFICE IN IOWA.—The Iowa Legislature elected two men last week to attend to the fires in the hall. They were qualified by taking an oath to "support the Constitution of the United States and kee[illegible]ood fires in the house."

IN the Illinois House of Representatives on the 9th inst., a motion to permit colored persons to testify in courts of justice, was laid on the table by a decisive vote.

CALIFORNIA ARRIVAL.—The Steamship North Star arrived at New York on the 10th inst. with 270 passengers, and $1,119,023 in gold, and California mails to Dec. 26. The North Star was detained two days at Aspinwall by a gale, which caused a great loss of life and property at that port.

PENNSYLVANIA COAL TRADE.—The total amount of coal sent to market from the Pennsylvania coal regions during 1854 was six millions two hundred and eighty-nine thousand three hundred and eighty-five tons, showing an increase as compared with the products of 1853 of seven hundred and seventy thousand two hundred and thirty-four tons.

ERIE & KALAMAZOO R. R. BANK.—The Adrian Expositor is informed that a quo warranto has been served upon this Bank, by the Attorney General, and that in consequence the notes of the Bank are now selling at from twelve to thirteen cents on the dollar.

ONE of the last official acts of Gov. Parsons, of Mich., was to pardon all the Michigan R. R. conspirators remaining in prison, save one, Ammi Filley—who was one of the leaders of the gang.

RISE IN THE MISSISSIPPI.—The recent copious rains have caused a gratifying rise in the Western rivers generally. On Monday morning last, the Mississippi at Alton had come up over 2 feet.

FIRE.—The Prescott House at New York, was damaged by fire on the 5th inst., to the amount of $5,000, and stock and furniture to the amount of nearly $10,000. Fully insured.

Mr Josiah Hall, of Walpole, Mass., reached his 101st year on Tuesday, Dec. 26. He is now in good health.

THE N. Y. Herald of the 6th, says the legality of the sales of the Galena and Chicago Railroad stock made on the 4th inst., at 70, will be tested.

SLAUGHTER-HOUSE BURNT.—The slaughter house of Mr. Linbert, Ceresco, Fond du Lac Co., was destroyed by fire, on Sunday, the 31st ult.

FAILURE.—Clark & Coleman, flour and provision dealers of New York, failed on the 5th inst.

FOURTEEN HOUSES BURNT.—A fire in Lynchburg, Va., on Saturday, destroyed fourteen houses.

During the past year the New York City Superior Court has naturalized 3,145 foreigners, and the Common Pleas 3,150.

NEENAH.—The Board of Supervisors of Neenah have resolved to divide that town.

A new Methodist Church was dedicated at Rosendale, Fond du Lac Co., on Sunday last.

THE Steamer Sultana arrived at Buffalo from Cleveland on Thursday last.

He who commences many things, finishes but a few.

A convention of Christian Jews is to be held in the City of New York soon.

INDIANA SCHOOL LAW.—The Supreme Court of Indiana has declared the 30th section of the School Law of the State to be unconstitutional. The section provides that the voters of any township shall have power at any general or special meeting to vote a tax for the purpose of building or repairing school-houses, and purchasing sites therefor, providing fuel, maps, apparatus, libraries, or increase thereof, or to discharge debts incurred therefor, and for continuing their schools till the public funds shall have been expended, to any amount not exceeding fifty cents on the one hundred dollars of property, and fifty cents on each poll.

The ground of the decision is that it violates the principle of uniformity of taxation, engrafted upon the Constitution.

RELIGIOUS PROGRESS.—The Methodists and Congregationalists, propose erecting a Union House of Worship, near the Red School House, the coming season.

Also, the Baptists an edifice in the vicinity of the Dodge School House, both on Blake's Prairie, in this county.—Grant Co., Herald.

GOVERNMENT LANDS.—The inquiry for lands for actual settlement under the graduation law, at 50 cents per acre, still continues in this county; although the chances of finding homes are becoming "beautifully less." We suppose the tract of country between the Military Ridge and the Wisconsin River contains the most vacant lands.—Grant Co., Herald.

IMPROVEMENT OF THE ST. CLAIR FLATS.—The business men of Buffalo are waking up to the importance of the immediate improvement of the St. Clair Flats. The Buffalo Democracy of the 6th inst. contains the following:

To the Western Press.

At a meeting of the Board of Trade of the city held at their rooms yesterday, a committee was appointed to gather statistics and prepare a report, on the amount expended during the past year by vessels in lightering over the St. Clair Flats, and considering the question generally as to the best means to be devised for dredging and otherwise improving the same before the opening of navigation, or as soon thereafter, as practicable. The committee will issue circulars immediately to all vessel owners at the several Lake Ports, and the press of those cities are requested to call the attention of their readers to the fact that those interested may be prepared to answer the circular as soon as practicable; as the report when completed will be forwarded to Washington. The questions that will probably be asked, are: name of vessel, her capacity, number trips made, amount paid for lighterage, time detained and damage sustained by collision, or being run into on the Flats while aground.

Mr. Weed, the Buffalo member of the N. Y. Assembly, has offered a joint resolution in that body, asking an appropriation from Congress to deepen the channel over the St. Clair Flats.

Change of County Seat.

A writer in the Sentinel, opposed to the removal of the County Buildings from their present site, says:

"Lots 2 and 3 in block 71, on which the Jail and brick offices are situated, were purchased by the County, of Mr. Elisha Eldred, and are consequently the property of the county. Lots 1 and 4 in the same block, which is the Court House site, with the Court House thereon were conveyed to the County on the 12th of January, 1837, for one dollar consideration, by Solomon Juneau and wife, and Morgan L. Martin, 'to be used by said County for public purposes,' with the following proviso in the deed:

"'Provided always that if the said premises hereby conveyed shall cease to be used for public services, as aforesaid, and the Court House in and for said county of Milwaukee, shall be established upon any other premises, than those hereby conveyed, then those presents shall be void, and the premises hereby conveyed shall revert to the persons entitled thereto, in case this deed had not been executed.'"

And he further claims that as the Wards of this city were made towns by the City Charter, that the Constitution forbids the removal of the Co. Buildings to another Ward without a major vote of the people of the County in its favor.

MONUMENT TO THE MURDERED BUTLER.—The citizens of Louisville have erected a monument to W. H. G. Butler, the teacher shot by Mat Ward. It is an elegant piece of workmanship, built of Italian marble, and about ten feet in height. The inscriptions on its sides are as follows:

William H. G. Butler, born in Jefferson Co., Indiana, October 3d 1825: died at Louisville, Ky., Nov. 2d, 1853.

On the reverse:

A man without fear and without reproach; of gentle and retiring disposition, of clear and vigorous mind; an accomplished scholar; a devoted and successful teacher; a meek and humble christian.

On the north side:

He fell by the hand of violence in the presence of his loving pupils—a martyr to his fidelity in the discharge of his duty.

On the south side:

This monument is erected by his pupils and a bereaved community, to show their appreciation of his worth, and to perpetuate their horror at his murder.

FRAUDS IN MARKETING.—The Philadelphia Pennsylvanian complains of a system of fraud constantly practiced in that city, by venders of potatoes and other market vegetables upon house-keepers, and says the same system is in vogue in New York:

"The persons engaged in it are chiefly Jerseymen and Delawarians by birth. They have a 'Society of Potatoe Dealers,' through which they not only regulate the quantity for sale in the market, but also the price of the commodity. By means of this society, with corresponding societies in New York and Baltimore, nearly the whole white potatoe crop of Delaware, New Jersey, and the counties adjoining Philadelphia, together with the latter, pass through the hands of those hucksters by forestalling, and is retailed at such prices as they choose to demand." Moreover, the purchaser is cheated in the measure; and the Pennsylvanian urges as a remedy, that potatoes should be sold by the weight.

TWIN EGGS.—A southern curiosity.—We were shown yesterday, by Cotton-Gin Builder Shaller, a twin egg which was found in his yard and which lusus naturæ that has ever come under our observation. The eggs, which are attached at the smaller ends by a ligament half an inch in length, have only a soft shell, but what is most remarkable is one is all yolk, while the other is composed entirely of what is commonly called 'the white.' Mr. Shaller suggests that it is a new species of egg, which should be called the Christmas or egg-nogg egg as the white and yellow are done up in separate shells, ready for beating and stirring for egg nog. This wonderful [illegible] in the science of eggology must no [illegible]tributed to the efforts of the fowl [illegible] and societies that have engaged so [illegible]lic attention of late years.—Savann[illegible], Dec. 29.

Incendiarism.—The barn belonging to Mr. William Stebbins, of this town was totally destroyed by fire, last night. Property of considerable value, was also consumed, consisting of 300 bushels of wheat, 2030 bushels of oats, a span of horses, harness wagon and farming utensils, A yoke of fat cattle were also very badly burned but not fatally. That it was the act of an incendiary, there seems to be no doubt. But what graceless villian committed the cowardly deed, is yet to be determined. Mr. Stebbins' loss, is estimated at $2000. There was no insurance.—Whitewater Gazette.

LABORERS WANTED.—Such is the scarcity of laborers who are not engaged in or about our village, that it is almost impossible to get anything done, except at the very highest price. The Masons, who are at work upon the inside walls of the University, are compelled to carry their own mortar and "tend themselves," such is the lack of men who can be hired. Wood choppers, and almost every other kind of laborers, are scarce and much needed.—Appleton Crescent.

Another Bridge.—The bridge across the ravine near the upper mills, is at last completed, and has been used for several days. It is about 200 feet below the high bridge.

Owing to the high elevation of Appleton above the river many bridges are necessary for the accommodation of the business public, and there has already been expended upon six or seven bridges, exclusive of the one across the river, nearly $2,000.—Appleton Crescent.

Fort Howard & St. Paul Railroad.—Mr. Westbrook, an experienced Surveyor and Engineer, passed through here a few days since on business connected with the Road. He accompanies a party who will immediately traverse the route.—Appleton Crescent.

TELEGRAPH NEWS.

Later from Havana.

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 8.—The Steamer Catawba has arrived with Havana dates to the 2nd.

The U. S. Steamer Fulton arrived at Havana on the 13th ult., after an unsuccessful search for the sloop-of-war Albany.

The trial of La Costa was still progressing. He made a declaration exonerating Felix from all complication with the fillibustering attempt at Barseon, repudiates any connection with the Cuban Junta of the United States, and said he was alone in the attempt at revolutionizing, and is quite ready to die. It is probable he will be condemned, but it is thought General Concha will pardon him.

The captain and mate of the Schooner John G. White are only to be charged with smuggling.

George N. Sanders came as a passenger in the Catawba.

Posting the Books.

Forty-two Members of the House from the Free States voted for Douglas's Nebraska bill on its final passage. Elections have been held for the next House in all the Free States but New Hampshire and Connecticut, which elected two of the number. (H. Hibbard and C. M. Ingersoll.) Of the forty who have already run the gauntlet, but seven have been reëlected—namely.

T. B. Florence and J. Clancy Jones of Pennsylvania.

G. Vail of New Jersey.

William H. English and Smith Miller of Indiana.

J. C. Allen and Wm. A. Richardson of Illinois.

Of these, Allen is returned elected by one majority, which return is contested, while all the residue are chosen by greatly reduced majorities. And several of the strongest, "Democrat" districts in the Free States—such as the Luzerne, the Fayette, and the Westmoreland in Pennsylvania, the Richland, the Holmes and the Auglaize in Ohio, have chosen Free-Soil Republicans.

Can there be any doubt that Douglas has had more influence than even Pierce in making a wreck of their party's ascendancy!—N. Y. Tribune.

New Planing and Siding Mill.—The foundation of this mill has already been laid about two weeks, and the timbers for raising are already in a forward condition and next week will be finally disposed of in their proper places.—This mill is to be three stories in height, and is being erected for Martin Rich & Co., and will prove a valuable addition to our already extensive manufacturing power, making the sixth establishment supplied with motive power from our lake.

We understand that another large Flouring Mill, and a Machine Shop is to be built on the same power early in the spring.—Horicon Argus.

Horicon Pockerel.—For past two weeks our fishermen have been busily engaged, and with unusually good success. The supply of fish is abundant, and of extraordinary size and quality, tons of them, varying from six to fifteen pounds and some, even larger, have been already caught and packed for market, and can be found in almost every city in the West. The revenue will amount $1,000 or 1,500.—Horicon Argus.

More Dwellings Wanted.—Our town is continually receiving accessions from abroad to its population, and we have not accommodations for them such as most of them require. Several 'Shells' of houses may be tenantless, but every dwelling worth living in has already all that it can hold. Some buildings not intended originally for dwelling houses, now contain from three to four families.—Appleton Crescent.

METHODIST CHURCH.—This large brick building is fast approaching completion, the walls, roof joists, and the frame of the steeple, are all up, and now ready for the shingling.—We understand the church is to be ready for service in a short time.—Horicon Argus.

HORSE AND BUGGY STOLEN.—Mr. Ellerby, of Lisbon, hitched his horse and buggy to a post in front of the Cross Keys Hotel, yesterday, and stepped inside for a moment, when some thief appropriated the property and drove off.—News of last evening.

Some birds never make a noise but at the approach of foul weather, so there are persons who never cry to God but when the chastening hand is upon them.

The attempt to wash flannels with soapstone has failed. The gentleman who started the idea, is now teaching weather cocks how to crow. We shall watch his progress with some interest.

NOT EASILY BEATEN.—Mr. Jacob Nathan, butcher, near this place, slaughtered last week a cow, 5 years old, whose weight on foot was 1,468 lbs.—Grant Co., Herald.

A NEW CHURCH.—The Baptists, are building a new church in our village, the frame is already up, and enclosed, and is being rapidly completed.—Horicon Argus.
